

This is absolutely disgusting as this proposed "broadcast flag" only further solidifies what happens when we have an illegitimate, unelected and illegal pig [the "President"] loitering on public property in the Oval Office. It is quite clear that this Notice of Proposed Rulemaking #02-230 comes on the coat tails of Mr. Ridge's appointment to Bush Baby's brand spankin' new NAZI youth squad called Homeland Security.

I would like to know what mongoloid reject in Hollywood came up with this idea. Was it some great and mighty bloated whale like Spielberg or Lucas?

Hey Mr. Lucas - you are the spinal cord of modern day visual digital storytelling. You are the first one to bitch and moan about independence and individuality, which is why you broke away from Hollywood to do your own thing. You basically told everyone in Hollywood and the FCC to go drop dead. So why are you allowing this insane bigotry to persist?

Hey Mr. Spielberg - you are the showman of Hollywood - and a civil rights advocate as well! On your path to Amistad, Schindler's List, A.I. and Minority Report, you seem to have lost your way somewhere on this issue that you should be so outspoken against. What happened Steven - are you fat and comfortable with your popularity? Too afraid to be infamous again like your cohort, Mr. Lucas?

Well anyway - you both should be ashamed - as should the FCC - for allowing (and therefore aiding and abetting) this ridiculous and heinous act of injustice against ALL the little people that have faithfully made your fat, negligent asses so popular.

I hope you are satisfied with yourselves. Your obvious selective ignorance - as well as that of your fattened, selfish Hollywood cronies - on the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking #02-230 has paved the way for the FCC to piss on everyone. The FCC should Serve the Public, Not Hollywood!

Sincerely
Rick Smith
